All these aids are under conditions.

They requires administrative process that can seem a bit long. Youngsters must have patience.

The notion of registration in a course is really important to advise the young person.

THE GENERAL INTEGRATION MISSION

The National Education must assure the follow-up to youngsters' qualification that leave the school system without diploma.

For this and particularly to make the follow-up of youngsters that leave the Secondary school without solution, the National Education set the General Mission of Integration that exists in every departments.

Thus, there is an academic coordination (under the authority of the inspector of schools, Head of academic service of Information and Orientation, Responsible for GMI and a departmental coordination under the authority of the inspector of information and orientation of the department).

The department of Alpes Maritimes was divided in 6 area of education and training that merge different schools.

For the Area of Nice Est, there are three coordinators of integration whose office is located at Duruy School. They set a « Coaching Pole and remotivation » that allows youngsters
