Methodology	Popular education and social mediation as tools for target group's empowerment
No. of beneficiaries involved	10
No. of staff operators involved	2
Activities	Drama workshop
Outputs and results	The participants of the workshop were mostly women immigrants. During the workshop they prepared a theatrical play (theatre of shadows for children) and at the end of the workshop they presented it twice in a big audience. All that process made them fill more confident, they realised the artistic points of their personalities and it was a good advertisement in the local community of the work that the school is doing.
Strengths identified	The participants realised the value of working as a group. They all worked very hard and they enjoyed not only the result but also the whole process.
Weaknesses	Some of our beneficiaries didn't manage to participate because they work very hard and long hours.
Other information	The play gave also a political message that when you work united as a group even if you are weak you can achieve anything.
